

DILLER TEEN FELLOWS / AMBASSADORS FOR UNITY IS A CLEVELAND-BEIT SHEAN YEAR-LONG PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM WHERE YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN YOUR COMMUNITY WHILE CONNECTING WITH NEW JEWISH FRIENDS AROUND THE WORLD!

APPLICATION PROCESS:

JUNE 3, 2011

Applications, references and essays due (application available on the website)

JUNE-AUGUST, 2011

Individual interviews

Total cost for the yearlong program is $750.

The Diller Teen Fellows/ Ambassadors for Unity program is a project of the Cleveland Beit Shean Partnership 2000 and is sponsored by the International Diller Teen Fellows program.

ARE YOU:

- » Motivated, creative and up for a challenge?
- » Ready to make a difference by implementing your own community project?
- » Eager to participate in an in-depth exploration of your Jewish identity and Israel?
- » Looking to meet teens from Cleveland, Beit Shean and communities around the world?
- » Currently in 9th or 10th grade?

If you answered yes, then the Diller/AFU yearlong program is for you!!

MAIN COMPONENTS:

- » Nine Sunday afternoon meetings and three overnight retreats between October 2011 and May 2012
- » A 2-week mifgash* in Israel during winter break, 2011
- » A 10-day mifgash* in Cleveland during March, 2012
- » A chance to create and implement your own community project

* mifgash: An exchange between Israeli and Jewish American teens

@AKIVA

Gift of Israel savings can be applied to the cost. Financial aid available.

216 · 464 · 4050 X133 • WWW.DILLERAFUCLEVELAND.COM